

JOB: LESSON TEN

INTRODUCTION:

In this lesson, we observe Job's "later end" where he is doubly blessed before his friends. God's approval of Job and anger toward his friends is clear. Job's suffering is changed to prosperity again and continues until his death in his old age.

X. JOB'S NEW BEGINNING (42:1-17)

- A. Job's Repentance (v. 1-6)
- B. Job's Vindication (v. 7-9)
- C. Job's Blessings (v.10-17)

QUESTIONS:

1. What did Job understand now about God?
2. What did Job understand now about himself?
3. What did all the above understanding cause Job to do?
4. Why was God angry with Eliphaz and his two friends?
5. How was Job vindicated before his friends?
6. "Jehovah gave Job _____ as much as he had before."
7. What all did Job receive from his brethren and acquaintances?
8. With how many sons and daughters did God bless Job?
9. Who were Jemimah, Keziah, and Keren-happuch?
10. How long did Job live after this time of suffering?
11. What wisdom does Job offer us in the "Euthanasia" debate of today?