

SONG OF SOLOMON – LESSON FOUR

I. THE SHULAMMITE'S SECOND DREAM OF HER BELOVED – BUT HE HAS TURNED AWAY IN HER DREAM (5:2-6:3).

- A. The Shulammite woman dreams that her beloved comes asking her to open her door (v. 2)
  - 1. Shulammite woman replies that she is already taken off her garment and washed her feet for the night (v.3).
- B. When she does open the door – he has turned away (v.4-6).
- C. The daughters of Jerusalem must promise that if they find the beloved, that they will tell him that the Shulammite woman is “sick from love” for him (v. 8).
- D. Daughters of Jerusalem wonder why the Shulammite’s beloved is greater than another (v. 9)
  - 1. Shulammite woman describes ten-fold the physical greatness of her beloved (v. 10-16).
- E. Daughters of Jerusalem ask where her beloved has gone – they would like to seek him with her (6:1).
  - 1. Shulammite woman replies with a yearning for him to come to her – for they belong to each other (6:2-3)

QUESTIONS:

1. What is occurring when the Shulammite woman says, “I was asleep but my heart waked”?
2. What noise does the Shulammite woman hear?
3. How does she first respond to her beloved’s request?
4. How does the woman describe the sorrow connected with opening her door only to not find him?
5. What did the woman want the daughters of Jerusalem to do?
6. What are the daughters of Jerusalem puzzled about?
7. What are the “eyes” of the Shulammite woman’s beloved like?
8. What is his “body” like?
9. He is all together _____.
10. Where does the Shulammite woman say her beloved has gone?
What is the significance of her statement?