

GENESIS – INTRODUCTION

The first five books of the Bible are called THE PENTATEUCH, a Greek word denoting a “five-scroll” book (PENTE – five + TEUCHOS – scroll). Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers and Deuteronomy follow Genesis, the first of the books in this division of the Old Testament. The books are also known by the Jews as the TORAH (“to throw”, or “point out” by throwing out the hand –give “direction”), or the books of LAW (cf. Luke 24:44).

I. THE TITLE OF “GENESIS”

- A. The title comes from the Septuagint (LXX), the Greek translation of the Old Testament occurring around 285 B.C.
  - 1. The Jews name the Old Testament books by the first “word” of the book – “In the beginning...”, therefore the Book of Beginnings.
  - 2. The Greeks name the books of the Old Testament by the “subject” – Book of Origins.
- B. The Greek word, “Genesis” means: “source, origin” (Thayer, p. 113)
  - 1. Vine defines the word as “it denotes an origin, a lineage, or birth” (vol. 2, page 144).
  - 2. The phrase “generation” occurs ten times (2:4; 5:1, 6:9; 10:1; 11:10; 11:27; 25:12, 19; 36:1; 37:2).

II. THE BOOK OF ORIGINS OR BEGINNINGS

- A. “In the beginning... God” – there is no beginning for God. In the beginning, God already is, just like the Word (John 1:1)
  - 1. God is eternal (without beginning, or end) (Deut. 33:27).
  - 2. God is “from everlasting to everlasting” (I Chron. 16:36, Psm. 90:2).
- B. That which has “beginning” in the Book of Genesis.
  - 1. The universe (1:1).
  - 2. Man (2:26, 26).

  - 4. Sin (2:16, 17; 3:6, 4:8)
