

FRUIT OF THE SPIRIT - MEEKNESS

LESSON 8

I. MEEKNESS DEFINED

- A. One facet of the fruit of the Spirit - PRAOTES, translated meekness or gentleness (Gal. 5:23).
- B. "Insists only on what is necessary. "Barclay describes the word as "strength under control; one who is "always angry at the right time, and never angry at the wrong time." (cf. I Cor. 4:21).
- C. Barclay also says meekness "is the word which strength and gentleness are perfectly combined"
 - 1. Moses (Num.12:3, cf. 2, 11-13)
 - 2. Jesus (Matt.11:29, 21:5, 2 Cor. 10:1)
- D. Meekness is harnessing our passions in service of God and men.
- E. Meekness is mildness of temper that allows one to be tolerant and patient, not belligerent and bitter under injuries (Titus 3:2-3)

II. MEEKNESS ACCOMPANIES HUMILITY TOWARD GOD

- A. Opposite of the proud sinners (Job 36:15, Psm.147:6, I Tim.6:11)
- B. Necessary in receiving God's word (James 1:21, Psm.25:9).
- C. Necessary in imparting God's word (I Pet. 3:15).
- D. God rewards the meek (Matt.5:5, Psm.37:11, 76:9, 149:4)

III. MEEKNESS ACCOMPANIES HUMILITY IN DEALINGS WITH MEN

- A. Forbearing one another in love (Eph.4:2, Col.3:12-13).
- B. Living in wisdom from above (James 3:13-18).
- C. Giving potentially persecuting inquirers answer for your hope (I Pet. 3:15).
- D. Especially important in winning those in sin back to God
 - 1. Alien sinner (I Pet. 3:4, 2 Tim. 2:25)
 - 2. Christians overtaken in trespass (Gal. 6:1).
